Beth Follett

Pronouns:	Sho/Hor
	She/Her
Email address:	feralgrl@interlog.com
Website:	www.pedlarpress.com
Region:	Avalon Peninsula
Willing to Travel:	Yes
Available For:	-Manuscript Evaluation	-Readings
	-Mentorship	-Prize Adjudication
	-Workshop Facilitation	-School Visits
Biography:	Beth Follett is the founder and publisher of the Canadian literary publishing house, Pedlar Press. Her first novel, Tell It Slant (Coach House Books 2001), was followed by YesNo (Fieldnotes, 2011), an essay in chapbook form, and two poetry chapbooks, Bone Hinged (paperplates, 2010) and A Thinking Woman Sleeps With Monsters (Apt. 9, 2014). Her second novel, Instructor , was released in 2021 (Breakwater Books). Follett lives in St. John's, NL.
Selected Publications:	Instructor (novel) Breakwater Books, St John's NL February 2021
	"Thoughts on Pedlar" (essay) Periodicities: A Journal of Poetry and Poetics https://periodicityjournal.blogspot.com/2020/11/bethfollett-thoughts-on-pedlar.html November 2020
	"Instructor" (excerpt) Works for Now anthology chapbook Espresso Books, Toronto August 2020
	"Learning to Crawl" (poem) Riddle Fence , St John's NL Summer 2020
	"Mechanical Pencil" (poem) Canadian Poets August 2019 "Blueboy" (poem) Literary R February 2018	Poetry Pause [online] League of eview of Canada

	The Best Canadian Poetry in English, 2019 Biblioasis 2019
	"Gifts" (creative non-fiction) Brick Magazine, Issue 96 2015
	A Thinking Woman Sleeps with Monsters (40 page limited edition poetry chapbook) Apt 9, Ottawa June 2014
Selected Awards:	ReLit Poetry Winner—Editor, 2004
Additional Notes:	Was the editor for many award-winning Pedlar titles	