

Lisa Daly

Pronouns: she/her

Email address: lisamichelledaly@gmail.com

Website: www.planecrashgirl.ca

Region: Avalon Peninsula

Willing to Travel: Yes

Available For: Manuscript Evaluations
Mentorship Prize
Adjudication
Editing/Proofreading
Readings
Book Reviews
Blog Writing
Transcription
Workshop Facilitation
School Visits
Speaking Engagements
Interviewing
Content Research
Social Media Content
Press Releases

Biography: Dr. Lisa M. Daly, PhD, has been working in Newfoundland and Labrador heritage for over twenty years in tourism, culture, and archaeology. She has specialized in the aviation history of the province, with multiple publications and presentations on the topic, including her thesis. She has written article for peer-reviewed journals, international conferences, museums, and has a chapter in a textbook and an article in NQ in press. She is currently the chair of Heritage NL, and a board member for the Newfoundland and Labrador Historical Society and the Conception Bay Museum.

Selected Publications:

- Navigating Stories, Engen Books, 2021, author
- Songs of the Deep, in Mythology From the Rock, Engen Books, 2021, author
- The Mouse, in Pulp Science Fiction from the Rock, Engen Books, 2020, author
- Flights From the Rock, Engen Books, 2019, editor
- The Island Outside the War, in Dystopia from the Rock, Engen

Books, 2019, author

- Sacrifice in Second World War Gander, in Canadians and War, vol. 3, Lammi Publishing, 2018, author

- An Empty Graveyard: The Victims of the 1946 AOA DC-4 Crash, Their Final Resting Place, and Dark Tourism, in AP Online Journal in Public Archaeology, 2018, 8(2): 79-98, author

Selected Awards:

- Arts & Letters, nonfiction, senior division, 2021

- May 2021 Kit Sora Flash Fiction Contest, second place, Engen Books

- November 2020 Kit Sora Flash Fiction Contest winner, Engen Books

- August 2018 Kit Sora Flash Fiction Contest, third place, Engen Books