

Stacey Oakley

Pronouns: she/her

Email address: stacey.oakley13@gmail.com

Website: <https://writershaunt.wordpress.com/>

Region: Avalon Peninsula

Willing to Travel: Yes

Available For: Prize Adjudication
Readings
Speech Writing
Blog Writing
Transcription
Workshop Facilitation
School Visits
Speaking Engagements
Interviewing
Content Research
Layout/Design
Academic Writing

Biography: Stacey Oakley was born in Moncton, New Brunswick and has bounced between the East and West coasts of Canada since then. Currently residing in St. John's, she possesses a Bachelor of Arts with a Major in Art History & Visual Studies and a Minor in Social Justice Studies as well as a post-grad Diploma in Cultural Resource Management from the University of Victoria. She also has a Diploma in Executive Office Administration from the College of the North Atlantic.

Primarily a fantasy author, Stacey has two books independently published, Hunter's Soul and The Necromancer, as well as numerous short stories in anthologies. Her upcoming sequel to Hunter's Soul won the 48 Hour Writing Marathon hosted by Engen Books and T.H.E. Creative Learning in 2018.

She has experience in developing public programming and workshops, taking part in panels, tutoring, and delivering presentations to a wide variety of audiences. She has also done some web design work for non-profit organizations.

Her characters and character development are frequently cited as very strong elements of her work.

Selected Publications: Hunter's Soul (2017)
The Necromancer (2020)
Hunter's Spirit (coming in 2021)

Selected Awards: First Place 2018 48 Hour Writing Marathon
2nd Place in WANL's 2021 Romance Writing Contest