Biography:

Originally from Northern Arm in Central Newfoundland, Christina now lives in St. John's with her family, including her three children, one dog, and partner, Brian. In 2020, she relocated back to Newfoundland from Vancouver, BC, where she spent 17 years teaching high school English and developing/teaching enrichment programs such as narrative writing, poetry, and art for the Vancouver School Board. During this time, she was also a copywriter and social media content creator for The Social Agency. Her poetry and creative nonfiction has been published in ROOM Magazine, Riddle Fence, and the chapbooks, Silent Work and Grimalkin. She's currently working as a substitute teacher with the NLESD and is completing an MA with a Creative Thesis at Memorial University of Newfoundland and Labrador.
