

Karin Murray-Bergquist

Pronouns: she/her

Email address: karin.murraybergquist@gmail.com

Website: <https://practicalfantasists.com>

Region: Avalon Peninsula

Willing to Travel: Yes

Available For:

Manuscript Evaluations

Mentorship

Editing/Proofreading

Readings

Book Reviews

Copywriting

Play/Stage/Script Writing

Speech Writing

Blog Writing

Ghost Writing

Transcription

Journalism

Speaking Engagements

Interviewing

Content Research

Illustrations

Other:

Open to helping adapt books to stage or audio, as well as reading audiobooks.

Biography:

Karin Murray-Bergquist is an actor, artist, and writer, based in Newfoundland. As part of the pursuit of a PhD in folklore, Karin has been working since 2020 on a digital interactive map of the ghost ship legends of Newfoundland and Labrador. This project has since inspired other maps, including Terra Precognita, a collection of original poetry based on travel. Along with these projects, Karin writes poetry, plays, and prose, and has a particular fondness for radio drama.

Selected Publications:

Dracula: A Radio Play (radio drama, writer/actor, 2023)

The Living at Eyminster (short fiction, 2023)

The Exiles (short fiction, 2023)

Lost Lands (short fiction/play, 2023)

A Compendium of Enigmatic Species (anthology, editor/author, 2022)

Corentin in Quarantine (radio comedy, 2020-2021)

Selected Awards:

WritersNL Romance Writing Contest, 2nd Place, 2023

Finalist, WritersNL National Poetry Month Writing Contest, 2021

Gregory J. Power Prize, 2nd Place, 2020