

Sabrina Pinksen

Pronouns: she/her

Email address: sabrinapinksen@gmail.com

Website: www.sabrinapinksen.com

Region: Avalon Peninsula, Central/Burin

Willing to Travel: Yes

Available For:

Manuscript Evaluations

Mentorship

Prize Adjudication

Editing/Proofreading

Readings

Workshop Facilitation

School Visits

Speaking Engagements

Biography: Sabrina Pinksen is a writer and painter from Wild Cove, White Bay. Her written and visual work operates to challenge the erasure of Newfoundland's outport communities. In 2024, her first novel was awarded the Percy Janes First Novel Award and the NLCU Fresh Fish Award. Her work has appeared in Riddle Fence, Horse Shoe, and Newfoundland Quarterly. A recent grantee of the Elizabeth Greenshields Foundation, Sabrina's visual work has been supported by ArtsNL and collected by the City of St. John's and The Rooms Provincial Art Bank. She holds an MFA in Creative Writing from the University of Guelph

Selected Publications: Riddle Fence, Horse Shoe, and Newfoundland Quarterly.

Selected Awards: 2024 NLCU Fresh Fish Award, Percy Janes First Novel Award

Additional Notes/Comments: