Biography:

Susan is a psychic medium who has walked through the challenges of mental illness. In 2016 Susan experienced a powerful psychic attack. The battle that followed empowered her to awaken to her purpose. She was called by her soul to awaken and remember. Having done so she now assists others with finding their soul path and embracing the challenges of awakening in this new age of technology and transformation. She is an empowerment facilitator with specialties in addiction, trauma, intimate partner violence, and spiritual awakenings. . Susan shares this journey in her writing, coaching, teaching, and through channeled energy healing meditations. You will find her on working as a content creator on YouTube and in her community on skool. Her work has been featured on radio and on television. She is the owner and operator of Soul Awakening Solutions where she offers spiritual development courses, coaching, and retreats. Strengthened by her own transformational experiences while transcending the labels of Bipolar, CPTSD, BPD and addiction she is embraces this journey as a healer who is healing.
